

Subject: EU Regulation 1005/2009/EC and Montreal Protocol

We confirm that our thermoplastic resins of the product lines:

Durethan and Pocan

Are in compliance with the requirements of Regulation (EC) No 1005/2009 of the European Parliament and the Council of September 16, 2009 substances that deplete the ozone layer including amendments that have been added up to September 2012.

Ozone Depleting Substances (ODS) as listed in this regulation and in the Montreal Protocol have not been intentionally introduced in the manufacture of the above mentioned thermoplastic resins and are not known to be present.

The manner in which you use and the purpose to which you put and utilize our products, technical assistance and information (whether verbal, written or by way of production evaluations), including any suggested formulations and recommendations are beyond our control. Therefore, it is imperative that you test our products, technical assistance and information to determine to your own satisfaction whether they are suitable for your intended uses and applications. This application-specific analysis must at least include testing to determine suitability from a technical as well as health, safety, and environmental standpoint. Such testing has not necessarily been done by us. Unless we otherwise agree in writing, all products are sold strictly pursuant to the terms of our standard conditions of sale. All information and technical assistance is given without warranty or guarantee and is subject to change without notice. It is expressly understood and agreed that you assume and hereby expressly release us from all liability, in tort, contract or otherwise, incurred in connection with the use of our products, technical assistance, and information. Any statement or recommendation not contained herein is unauthorized and shall not bind us. Nothing herein shall be construed as a recommendation to use any product in conflict with patents covering any material or its use. No license is implied or in fact granted under the claims of any patent.
